Raising the height of Sardar Sarovar Dam is being opposed by Narmada Bachao Andolan. It is notable that the Narmada Valley Project is a joint project of Madhya Pradesh, Gujarat & Maharashtra. The Narmada Dam Project involves the construction of a series of large hydroelectric dams on the Narmada river in India. This is going to be one of the largest river valley projects in the world because the entire project includes the construction of 30 major, 135 medium and 3000 minor dams on the river. Of the 30 big dams proposed along the Narmada, Sardar Sarovar Project (SSP) and Narmada Sagar Project (NSP) are the mega dams.

The Indira Sagar (Narmada Sagar) Dam is a multipurpose project on the Narmada river near Punasa district Khandwa, M.P. It provides irrigation to 2.70 lakh hectares of land annually and has a power generation capacity of 1,000 MW. The foundation stone was laid by late Prime Minister, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru in 1961. Disputes had started between Gujarat and Madhya Pradesh due to raising the height of Sardar Sarovar Dam and the matter was taken to the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court warned the beneficiary states, that if the affected people are not satisfactorily rehabilitated, the construction work could be stopped.
