- (a) 1906-1911
- (b) 1916-1922
- (c) 1917-1921
- (d) 1940-1946

U.P.P.C.S. (Pre) 1992

Ans. (b)

1916-1922 was a period of unanimity between Indian National Congress and Muslim League. Lucknow Pact was only temporary agreement. Despite this pact, Muslim League maintained its separate existence and advocated separate political right for Muslims. Both parties acted jointly according to this pact till 1922. But this pact was dissolved with Non-cooperation Movement and League opted its old ideology.

Home Rule League Movement

Tilak started Home Rule League in April, 1916 A.D. Annie Besant started the Home Rule League in September, 1916 A.D.

*Besant through The Common Weal and New India and Tilak through Mahratta and Kesari promoted their league to masses.

Joseph Baptista was the first president of Tilak's Home Rule League and N.C. Kelkar was its secretary.

George Arundale was the organizing secretary of Annie's Home Rule League. *Tilak and Annie Besant divided their areas of work.

Tilak got Karnataka, Maharashtra (except Bombay), Central Province and Berar. Rest of India was part of Annie's Area of work. Both leagues never merged because in Annie Besant's words, "Some of Tilak's supporters do not like me and some of my supporters do not like him this does not mean we both had any kind of conflict."

*In Home Rule League movement both Tilak and Annie Besant had same meaning of 'Swaraj' i.e. to get a responsible government and administration at central and provincial levels under the British Empire and to have treatment like white ruled states like Canada and Australia which were dominion states of British.

Annie Besant described Home Rule Movement in her newspaper 'The Common Weal' on 2nd January, 1914 A.D. Under this a programme was made for Religious freedom, National Education, Social and Political reforms keeping in mind the objective of Self government under the British Commonwealth.

*The movement was very famous in India during the first World War. Lucknow session of 1916 A.D. was an excellent occasion for Home Rule League's members to show their might.

*A train was reserved to transport the supporters of Tilak to Lucknow, some people named that train as 'Congress Special' and some people named it as Home Rule Special.

George Arundale, organizing secretary of Besant's League asked their supporters to show their presence at Lucknow in huge numbers.

*Theosophical society was established in 1875 by Colonel Olcott and Madam Blavatsky.

Annie Besant became its member in 1889.

1. Who launched the first Home Rule League Movement?

- (a) Annie Besant (b) Sarojini Naidu
(c) Surendranath Banerjee (d) Tilak

U.P.P.C.S. (Pre) 1993

U.P.P.C.S. (Pre) 1991

Ans. (a)

During the first World War, Mrs. Annie Besant and Tilak decided to put new life in the National Movement in the country. Tilak decided to use the term 'Home Rule' in place of Swaraj as the goal of his Movement. Tilak started Home Rule League in April, 1916 A.D. with its headquarters at Poona. A similar Home Rule League was founded by Annie Besant in September, 1916 A.D. with its headquarters at Adyar near Madras. However, the movement itself was first talked about by Annie Besant in his newspaper The Common Weal in 1914.

2. Two Home Rule Leagues were started in 1915-16 under the leadership of:

- (a) Tilak and Annie Besant
(b) Tilak and Aurobindo Ghosh
(c) Tilak and Lala Lajpat Rai
(d) Tilak and Vipin Chandra Pal

U.P. U.D.A./L.D.A. (Pre) 2001

Ans. (a)

See the explanation of above question.

3. Annie Besant is mostly associated with :

- (a) Civil Disobedience Movement
(b) Home Rule Movement
(c) Khilafat Movement
(d) Non-Co-operation Movement

U.P.P.C.S. (Mains) 2010

Ans. (b)

Annie Besant, a theosophist, settled in India and worked for its liberation. She was inspired by the Irish Home Rule Movement and formed the Home Rule League in India in September, 1916 A.D., at Adyar in Madras. She already explained her views about this Movement in The Commonweal (a weekly newspaper) in 1914 A.D. Annie Besant started this Movement to demand self-governance at all levels of administration. Her Home Rule League became active throughout India. She was arrested along with her co-workers and released after widespread agitation against the action of Government.

4. The movement in India which became popular during the First World War was the :

- (a) Swadeshi and Boycott Movement
(b) Home Rule Movement
(c) Separatist Movement
(d) Swaraj Party Movement

U.P. Lower Sub. (Pre) 2008

Ans. (b)

See the explanation of above question.

5. Who among the following did not contribute to Home Rule League?

- (a) Bal Gangadhar Tilak (b) Annie Besant
(c) S. Subrahmanyam Ayer (d) H.S. Alcott

40th B.P.S.C. (Pre) 1995

Ans. (d)

H.S. Alcott was not associated with Home Rule League but was related to Theosophical Society. Tilak started Home Rule League in April, 1916 A.D. and on the other hand, Annie Besant started Home Rule League in September, 1916. S. Subramania Iyer was also associated with the Home Rule League of Annie Besant.

6. Which of the following is not associated with Home Rule Movement?

- (a) C.R. Das (b) S. Subrahmaniam Iyer
(c) Annie Besant (d) B.G. Tilak

U.P.P.C.S. (Pre) 2010

Ans. (a)

See the explanation of above question.

7. In which conference could the Home-Rule supporters demonstrate their political power successfully?

- (a) Lucknow Conference of Congress in 1916
(b) All India Trade Union Conference held at Bombay in 1920
(c) First U.P. Farmers Association held in 1918.
(d) Joint A.I.T.U.C and N.T.U. Sabha at Nagpur in 1938.

39th B.P.S.C. (Pre) 1994

Ans. (a)

The Lucknow Session of Congress in December 1916 A.D. presented the Home Rule Leagues with the long-awaited opportunity for demonstrating their strength. Tilak's Home Rule League established a tradition to which Congress was pinned for many years.

8. Home Rule Movement was symbol of starting a new phase of freedom movement in India because :

- (a) It put a perfect project for the self-Government before the nation
(b) Leadership of the movement came into the hands of Gandhiji
(c) Hindus and Muslims started to struggle jointly
(d) It established co-ordination between extremists and moderates

41st B.P.S.C. (Pre) 1996

Ans. (a)

It is true that Home Rule Movement was a symbol of starting a new phase of Freedom Movement in India because it put a perfect picture of the self-governance before the Nation. The object of this Home Rule League was to attain Home-Rule or Self-Governance within the British Empire by all Constitutional means and to educate and organize public opinion in the Country towards the attainment of the same. Both Tilak and Besant toured all over the country and carried out the message of the Home Rule among the masses. Thus, the Home Rule Movement became a powerful Movement during the First World War. The Movement aimed at self-Government to be granted to India within the British dominions during the war. It was within Constitutional limits.

9. Which of the following is not correct about the Home Rule League:

- (a) The plan was first presented in 1914-15 by Annie Besant
- (b) The Home Rule League of Tilak was confined to Maharashtra, Karnataka, Central Provinces and Berar
- (c) The Home Rule League founded by Tilak was much stronger
- (d) Despite the differences between Tilak and Besant, both the Leagues continued to exist

U.P.P.C.S. (Pre) 2004

Ans. (*)

The concept for the foundation of Home Rule League was first introduced by Mrs. Annie Besant. Self-Governance Movement began with the publication of the weekly review newspaper The Commonweal on January 2, 1914 A.D. The Movement was started by B.G. Tilak in Poona in April, 1916 A.D. and Annie Besant and S. Subramania Iyer at Adyar near Madras in September, 1916 A.D. Tilak's League worked in Maharashtra (except Bombay), Karnataka, Central Province and Berar. It was the most organized League and Annie Besant's League was in the rest of India. The objective of the Movement was self-governance for India in the British Empire. Tilak linked up the question of Swaraj with the demand for the formation of linguistic states and education in the vernacular languages. He gave the slogan 'Swaraj is my birthright, and I shall have it'. The Mahratta and Kesari of Tilak and Annie Besant's The Commonweal and New India became the organs of the Home Rule movement. Both Home Rule League were complementary with each other, so there was no dispute between Tilak and Annie Besant and both Leagues continued to exist. Therefore, all options are correct.

10. The Home Rule Leagues of Tilak and Annie Besant were merged into one in –

- (a) 1916
- (b) 1918
- (c) 1920
- (d) 1923

Ans. (*)

See the explanation of above question.

11. Who among the following was a proponent of Fabianism as a movement?

- (a) Annie Besant
- (b) A.O Hume
- (c) Michael Madhusudan Dutt
- (d) D. R. Palme Dot

I.A.S. (Pre) 2005

Ans. (a)

Annie Besant (1847-1933 A.D.) was a proponent of Fabian movement.

12. Annie Besant was –

- 1. responsible for starting the Home Rule Movement.
- 2. the founder of the Theosophical Society.
- 3. once the President of the Indian National Congress.

Select the correct answer using the code given below :

- (a) Only 1
- (b) 2 and 3
- (c) 1 and 3
- (d) All of these

I.A.S. (Pre) 2013

Ans. (c)

Even though Annie Besant was associated with the Theosophical Society, she was not its founder. It was founded by Madame Blavatsky and Henry Olcott. Thus, statement 2 is incorrect. Statement 3 is correct that Annie Besant became the first woman President of the Indian National Congress in 1917, Calcutta Session. Statement 1 is also correct. Annie Besant launched the Home Rule League in India on the lines of the Irish Home Rule Leagues along with Tilak.

13. In 1920, which of the following changed its name to "Swarajya Sabha"?

- (a) All India Home Rule League
- (b) Hindu Mahasabha
- (c) South Indian Liberal Federation
- (d) The Servants of India Society

I.A.S. (Pre) 2018

Ans. (a)

The Home Rule Movement, the All India Home Rule League, was a national political organization founded in September 1916 by Annie Besant. Tilak's Indian Home Rule League in Karnataka, Maharashtra (except Bombay), Central Provinces and Berar. The rest of the country fell under the care of Annie Besant's League. The aim of the League was to achieve self-government in a constitutional manner within the British Empire. In 1920, the All India Home Rule League elected Mahatma Gandhi as its President and Mahatma Gandhi changed its name to 'Swarajya Sabha' (Assembly).
